

IN PRAISE OF OLDER WOMEN

by Barbara Gollob

Barbara Gollob presents a photo series of twelve unique women between the ages of sixty and ninety-nine. Each portrait is accompanied by a text which reveals the background and outlook of each woman. These women owe their youthfulness and vitality to their creativity and concerned involvement in the lives of others. Ms. Gollob's portraits capture the inner beauty of her subjects as she attempts to "touch the spirit within."

Date: Monday, January 27

Time: 12 noon

Place: 2170 Bishop, Room 101

Documentary photograph Barbara Gollob received her B.F.A. degree in photography from Concordia. She is the recipient of the 1995 Kodak Award from Concordia's Department of Printmaking and Photography. Ms. Gollob has had solo and group exhibitions of her work on native people, older women, and women, body image and cosmetic surgery. Her previous presentation at the Simone de Beauvoir Institute was on "Women, Body Image and Cosmetic Surgery." Ms. Gollob's portrait of Mildred Ryerson won third prize in a competition held at the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts in 1994.

Information: 848-2373